Micanopy in Shadow May 15 2022 A small town hears a young mother's cries for help, but turns away. In time, she is all but forgotten, but not by the young daughter she has left behind nor by the child's mysterious benefactor. More than 80 years later, Hope Losterman wants answers about her mother's terrible fate. She enlists her granddaughter and amateur sleuth Brandy O'Bannon. Do the dead have tales to tell? A psychic offers an eerie warning, but Brandy risks all to pursue the truth. As she peels back layers of deceit, she learns that much in Micanopy is not what it seems. What she finds will change everything for Brandy, her grandmother, and a picturesque town that guards an ugly secret.

The Mother's Day Garden Nov 09 2021 An ordinary woman makes an extraordinary discovery -- and gets a second chance to follow her dreams -- in this heartwarming novel from award-winning storyteller Kimberly Cates Parenthood behind her, her only daughter off to college, Hannah O'Connell should be enjoying the peace of an empty home, and time with her husband, Sam. But a miraculous arrival, an abandoned baby girl, comes into their lives -- a precious infant with the power to put the unspoken strains in their marriage into sharp focus. Clashing with Sam over caring for little Ellie, Hannah takes a chance on her lifelong wish for a home filled with the laughter and joys of children. Sam needs only to look at Hannah's garden -- where, years ago, she hoped to plant a lilac bush for each of her children still to be -- to know he cannot keep her love for Ellie from blooming. But will a shattering secret from Hannah's past push them to the breaking point? Hannah will risk everything on the hope that love is enough for them all.

The Brevard Rosenwald School May 03 2021 A century ago, the Brevard Rosenwald School in Transylvania County, North Carolina, opened its doors to African American students from the community and the surrounding area. It was a microcosm of the community it served; teachers and pupils lived on the same streets, shopped in the same stores, worshiped at the same churches, and teachers and parents served on the same committees, confronted similar social and economic problems, and sought each other's advice about issues in daily life. This book is a history of the school, with special attention given to the years 1920 to 1966, and its attempts to improve the education of African Americans in the South. It also focuses on the school's beginnings, development, significance to the community, closing, and the integration process and the Rosenwald community today. The author also presents narratives from former students about their experiences and educational goals, pursuits and accomplishments at the school and later in their lives.

But then the woman he has secretly loved since childhood returns home after two years. Abandoned as a child the way he was, Annie Harris understands him. But she doesn't know the real reason keeping him a bachelor. A missionary nurse, Annie is planning to leave soon. Especially when a senseless scandal involving her threatens the ranch—and Will's future. But can he trust in rekindled love to see that Annie just might be his future?

Reading in a Participatory Culture Sep 19 2022 Building on the groundbreaking research of the MacArthur Foundation's Digital Media and Learning initiative, this book crosses the divide between digital literacies and traditional print culture to engage a generation of students who can read with a book in one hand and a mouse in the other. Reading in a Participatory Culture tells the story of an innovative experiment that brought together playwright and director Ricardo Pitts-Wiley, Melville scholar Wyn Kelley, and new media scholar Henry Jenkins to develop an exciting new curriculum to reshape the middle- and high-school English language arts classroom. This book offers highlights from the resources developed for teaching Herman Melville's Moby-Dick and outlines basic principles of design, implementation, and assessment that can be applied to any text. The Story That Must Be Told Oct 08 2021 This slim volume contains 21 true stories of courage, love, endurance, and undying hope from people around the U.S.A. and U.K. Follow each author as he or she details what it took to face impossible circumstances and powerfully transform them into forgiveness, understanding, and grace.

Where's My Sister? Nov 21 2022 When Linda Burden was five years old, her adopted parents came home with a new baby. The baby was not born to Linda's parents; much as they had done with Linda and her brother, the Burden parents had adopted the tiny child. This tiny child was now Linda's little sister, and they named her Alison. They appeared to have a charmed life, but there was nothing charming about it. Linda and Alison's parents were still mourning the deaths of their two biological children. Their father was an alcoholic, and their mother was having an affair. This difficult upbringing drew Linda and Alison together as more than just adopted sisters; they became friends—best friends—who would survive a painful childhood to become adults on very different life paths. Linda took a high road; Alison, suffering from psychological illness, found herself on a low road. Alison's life devolved into one of alcoholism and anorexia. Linda would become her only hope for salvation. In this true life account of sibling love and devotion, Linda watches her sister's weight drop to sixty-five pounds, and before it's too late she must convince Alison that she is beautiful. Despite their differing DNA, Linda and Alison are linked by love, and it is love they need most of all.

A Mother's Sins Feb 12 2022 Urying the past only delays the inevitable. Sarah Cartwright is on the cusp of having it all—a new baby, a devoted partner, and a great job as a political campaign director. However, Sarah's return to the office after maternity leave finds her powerful position assigned to someone else, and Sarah didn't work hard for years just so she could observe from the sidelines. As her dreams threaten to crash and burn around her, the lies she's built her life upon are exposed. Smears that put her entire career on the brink are splashed across news headlines, and caught between a new boss, backstabbing co-workers, and a wary partner, Sarah can't be certain who to trust. When bodies start to drop and the police show up on her doorstep, the past can no longer stay hidden. All sins are punished one day.

Twin Expectations Jan 31 2021 In Twin Expectations, author Judge Eileen A. Olds presents a go-to, how-to, hope-filled guide for reclaiming what matters most—our children. Eileen and her identical twin sister, Francine, a noted gynecologist, were raised by their single mother to defy lowered expectations rather than succumb to them. If society had had its way, neither of them may have succeeded, let alone risen to the top of their professions in such highly-competitive fields. Now combining lessons learned from her mother and her own experiences as a juvenile and family court judge, she shares guiding wisdom and practical advice for children-rearing. Using her personal stories, Twin Expectations provides direction to parents to help their children of all ages: • gain the confidence to make wise choices; • learn to have accountability in all things; • understand the power of purpose; • be resilient; • mind their manners; • become independent sooner; and • value family. Advocating love, care, and concern, Twin Expectations provides a fresh vision for parents and all of those concerned about future generations. When Judge Olds throws her book at you, it is one you will want (and need) to catch!

Ultimate Domestic Thriller Boxset Jan 23 2023 Buried pasts. Children in peril. Mothers on the edge... Seven mothers are pushed to the edge, and must face the secrets from their pasts in these heart-racing psychological thrillers. In A Mother's Past, maintaining the perfect façade becomes impossible for Karen when the past crawls out of the woodwork to threaten the life she's worked so hard to create. And the truths she uncovers may have been better off staying hidden. In A Perfect Mother, Laurie is left in shock when her husband vanishes without a trace. She'll have to pick up the pieces of her life to keep the bills paid. But her new job working in the twisted world of celebrity influencers preys on her psyche and puts her daughter's life at risk. In A Mother's Sins, Sarah is on the cusp of having it all—a new baby, a devoted partner, and a great job. But it all comes crashing down as her lies are revealed and bodies start piling up. She's supposed to have the perfect life, but nothing stays buried forever. In A Mother's Lie, Clara McNair is desperate to raise money for her son's cancer treatment. When a documentary film crew offers cold hard cash for the sordid secrets of her past, Clara reluctantly agrees. She'll relive her darkest moments to save her son. But how far will she go to save herself? In The Found Child, Elaine's worst fears become reality when her beloved son Jakob is diagnosed with a terrible disease. As she searches for a bone marrow donor, a ghost from her past jeopardizes everything she's built. But is the threat real... or is it all in her mind? In The Perfect Neighborhood, forensic pathologist Holly Weldon moves to an idyllic suburb with her husband Mike and infant Clare. But their peaceful new life is shattered when Holly's violent past catches up with her. And she's forced to take a stand to save her both her family and herself... And in Mother's Don't Lie, successful real estate agent Molly Burke seems to have it all. But when her father-in-law goes missing, and her son becomes a murder suspect, Molly's childhood trauma returns to shatter her idyllic life. Someone knows what she did. And if the truth is kept hidden, her family will pay the price. These desperate women must fight through twisty plots, shocking revelations, heartbreak, and danger if they are going to survive in this Domestic Thriller Boxset.

A Field Guide for Genealogists Aug 06 2021 Families of Southeastern Georgia is a reprint of the third and final volume of Dr. Averitt's 1964 publication, Georgia's Coastal Plain: A History, the volume that holds greatest importance for genealogists. Each of the roughly 1,000 sketches arranged here gives the subject's place and date of birth, his educational background and military service, and then his career, civic interests, church affiliation, hobbies, and so on. In almost every case, the author furnishes the names of the subject's parents, spouse, children, and spouse's parents, usually citing the subject's date of marriage and the dates or places of birth and death of at least these three generations of family members. Arizona Cowboy Sep 07 2021 Rachel Lewis is a bona fide city slicker. Still, when her estranged father asks for her help, she ends up in dusty Stagecoach, Arizona, to manage his rodeo company for the summer. Being clueless about rough stock is nothing, though, compared to the confused feelings Rachel has for sexy ranch foreman Clint McGraw...because he's also her main competitor for her father's affections. Clint can hardly believe it when his boss hands over the reins to his long-gone daughter. What the heck does a spoiled city girl like Rachel know about rodeo? Why, she's crazy enough to offer a competition event to women bull riders! And for sure she's going to nudge her way back into her father's heart--leaving Clint high and dry. Even so, he can't help falling hard for Rachel. But only one of them can be the head honcho of this round-up!

Resolana Dec 10 2021 Villagers in northern New Mexico refer to the south-facing side of a wall as la resolana, meaning the place where the sun shines. Every culture has a resolana, a place where the resolaneros—the villagers—gather, dialogue, and reflect on society, culture, and politics. The buried knowledge that emerges from this process may be pure gold, or el oro del barrio, a metaphor for the culturally contextualized knowledge gathered at the resolana. Coming from diverse backgrounds in social work, sociology, public administration, literature, history, and education, three modern resolaneros take the twin concepts of resolana and el oro del barrio on a breathtaking journey from their rural roots to their application in an urban setting and on to a holistic view of globalization. The authors offer a humane perspective on transborder cultures and all communities struggling to maintain their cultural and linguistic identities. They share an optimistic view of how ordinary people everywhere can take back control of their own destinies. This book is about uncovering subjugated knowledge—el oro del barrio—through resolana, a dynamic process of thought and action. Resolana will inspire dialogue and creativity from those interested in sociology, political science, social work, and Chicano studies, as well as public-policy makers and the general public.

Someone to Trust Dec 22 2022 So what if she's the fire chief's daughter? Arson investigator Rand Mason doesn't trust Catelyn Caldwell. Seven years ago, he was on the scene when Cate's drunken boyfriend ran her sister and brother-in-law off the road. But the purple-haired brat he remembers sitting in the passenger seat has become a poised, confident woman. With Cate's father critically injured in a meth lab fire, she's determined to find the person responsible. She needs Rand's help...and he needs to keep Cate close. Time to see if she's truly someone he can trust—and love.
