This collector's volume contains three books in their story, including Crave Me, Covet Me, and Capture Me plus the holiday novella, Complete Me. ? Belle Stuart walked into Smith Price's office with crimson lips and a smart mouth to match, making it impossible for him to not put her in her place-and on her knees. ? She should be off-limits. Protecting her might mean letting her go. ? But she's the one woman he can't give up. She the one woman he can't stop craving. She's the one he covets... Capture Me Belle never expected to fall in love with Smith Price. Now he is more than her lover. He is her obsession. Her savior. Her future. ? But someone has to pay for the sins of their fathers. Excerpt 1 , ["Nice bracelet." He traced a finger on the bracelet, momentarily touching my skin. The hair on my skin rose and I shuddered under his touch. I immediately drew my hand back. "It looks good on you Katherine." He complimented and his enchanting gaze seemed to bewitch me. "Thankyou" I said, without even giving it a second thought. Immediately I wanted to take that 'thankyou' back. Thank you? Of all the things I could have said, "thankyou" was the worst. I didn't want Lucas thinking that I liked his compliment. It didn't take much thinking to realize that he was trouble, and I had enough trouble looming, no need to invite more. "And I prefer Kat." I corrected, realizing that he had called me Katherine earlier. "Why not Katherine?" His gaze looked appraising. "Cause it's boring." I answered and turned towards the chalkboard. "I think it's beautiful." His reply caught me off guard and I turned sideways, he was still staring at me intently, with those dazzling charcoal grey eyes.] * * * * *

Excerpt 2, [He shifted in his seat and his eyes met mine. "I believe there's always more to everything than it meets the eye." He was inclining towards me now. "Do you not believe in witches?" "I don't. . ." I lied. "They only exists in folklores and myths." I added to make my lie more convincing. I noticed his lips turn into a smile but it faded away the second he looked at me. "Are you sure?" He raised an eyebrow. "Do things out of blue not elevate your curiosity?" "They do." I replied. In fact, everything happening lately had my curiosity skyrocketed. "And have you ever tried to find answers to those questions? If you do find the answers. . ." He leaned in closer. "I bet you won't be disappointed." He was unnecessarily close, his husky voice went straight into my ears. He shifted back in his seat and put his hands behind his head. There was a smirk plastered on his lips and for some reasons I had a feeling that he had challenged me to some mysterious quest.] * * * * * Tags See all
